

ROYAL HONEYMOON SALE

Both P&O Cruises World Cruising and Cunard are synonymous with Royalty, from the naming of their vessels to the historic yet classic British elegance present across both fleets.

On 29 April 2011 more than 12,000 passengers onboard P&O Cruises super liners celebrated The Royal Wedding in style. Avid Royal followers were immersed in captivating live broadcasts of Prince William and Catherine's gala wedding. Royal Wedding Celebrations included a Royal sail-away party and Royal gala ball, boasting the largest collective wedding celebrations at sea.

Similarly for Cunard, passengers celebrated in style onboard Cunard's three legendary liners, Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth. Guests were treated to a live broadcast of The Royal Wedding Ceremony in the ships aptly-named Royal Court Theatre followed by an evening dinner featuring a commemorative menu and champagne toast.

The commemoration of the first major Royal Wedding in over a decade could be considered an ideal time to plan your 2012 World Cruise holiday escape, renewal of vows, second honeymoon or maybe even celebrate your own wedding afloat - in grand British style.
